

Role Profile: Drama Instructor

About Theatre Professionals

From drama classes at one school in 2008 to a company that founded The Drama School, Mumbai, and has delivered drama to children at over 30 schools across 8 cities, Theatre Professionals has come a long way and is currently bringing the benefits of drama to young learners.

Our company is driven by a desire to create a better working environment for theatre and creating opportunities for work where none existed before. In the ten years of work, over fifty people have joined our team as drama educators and they continue to regularly do what they love best and bring the joys to drama to young learner and other educators.

Job Description

We are currently looking for Drama Teachers to run the Theatre Arts programmes in a school In Rohini, Delhi - individuals who have a deep interest in theatre as a performance medium and love working with children and young adults.

Scope of Work:

- Diligently and competently teaching assigned grades in the schools, as per the time table and academic calendar
- Plan your work, fill in your lesson plans, reflections, make preparations for your own classes.
- Talk and discuss collaboratively with teachers about how your work and content can complement each other.
- Attend school team meetings to understand what all is happening in the school, especially with respect to your grades.
- Provide support to teachers who may need your assistance on presentations.
- Attend all school and subject PTMs.

Applicant Profile

- Drive: an initiative to make the most of all opportunities for professional development
- Determination: to learn at every instant & seeking experiences that enrich and improve you
- Performing Arts Exposure: onstage/backstage/professional/amateur/workshops/teaching
- Excellent Communication Skills: most of our programmes are conducted in English
- Work experience with Children: in the school environment

Time Commitments

- 2 - 4 school-days per week of teaching in-class, 32-36 weeks a year in each school
- 3-6 hours per week of your own planning
- Monthly internal meetings with the school
- Peer Sharing Workshop once a month
- 2-3 year commitments to Theatre Professionals

Your Roles and Responsibilities:

Theatre Professionals provides the curriculum and teaching support. However as part of your Job you will be expected to learn and execute the following:

- Prepare all activities, materials and resources for class
- Maintain and share a regular weekly record of work
- Provide assessments to students through the year
- Provide feedback reviews at set points in the year to the school

Salary:

- Determined by your experience & the extent of your time commitment
- Usually between Rs 15000/- to Rs 40000/- per month

Location: Mumbai, Delhi, Bangalore

Job Commences: Immediate

To Apply:

Write in to us at - schools@theatreprofessionals.co.in with:

- An updated C. V. with all relevant details that will help us assess you for this job
- A covering letter giving us a better sense of why you want to teach drama to kids. Here are the few questions we would like you to address in the cover letter:
 1. What are the 3 things that made you choose to work with children?
 2. What are 3 things you see yourself gaining as a Drama Instructor?
 3. What is that one goal in your professional life you would like to achieve with Theatre Professionals?
 4. If you weren't a teacher, what would you be doing in life?
- Names and contact details of two referees from past professional engagements.

Get in touch with us if you need help with any of these details. Call: +91 9818015880 / +91 9769088514 or write in to schools@theatreprofessionals.co.in